† Anthem Text †

And the Father Will Dance

And the Father will dance over you in joy! He will take delight in whom He loves. Is that a choir I hear singing the praises of God? No, the Lord God Himself is exulting o’er you in song! And He will joy over you in song; And He will joy over you in song!

My soul will make its boast in God, for He has answered all my cries. His faithfulness to me is as sure as the dawn of a new day.

Awake my soul! Awake my soul! Awake my soul and sing! Let my spirit rejoice, let my spirit rejoice, let my spirit rejoice in God!

Sing, O daughter of Zion, with all of you heart! Cast away fear for you have been restored! Put on the garment of praise as on a festival day. Join with the Father in glorious, jubilant song. And He will joy over you in song; And He will joy over you in song!

And the Father will dance over you in joy! He will take delight in whom He loves! Is that a choir I hear singing the praises of God? No, the Lord God Himself is exulting o’er you in song! God rejoices over you. God rejoices over you. God rejoices over you in song!

† Missions Moment †

At the Women's center, an Armenian woman in her eighties comes to get a food package every six weeks. She doesn't attend any meetings, but either asks her neighbors to get the package or walks to the center if she can.

She has two children. Her son has AIDS and recently underwent an operation. Her daughter used to help her mother and brother, giving them some cash to buy a few things. The Armenian Club pays for their utilities, and she gets a little additional help from the Red Cross and similar organizations.

She called recently, and told me they don't have any food at home—she has nothing to feed her son who still lives with her. I asked her to join me at the center the next day. She came with a neighbor, a young boy who would help her carry the food package. She looked in terrible condition. I gave her the food package, and she shared with me that they recently discovered her daughter has cancer and is going through treatment.

The whole situation is very hard, one of poverty, AIDS, and now cancer. My heart went out to her. I helped a little with some cash, but it wasn't much at all.

I'm praying for her and for mercy. Please remember her in your prayers.
