

FBC SUNDAY SCHOOL: SEPTEMBER 2020

First Baptist Church strives to continue an interactive Sunday morning Bible study during this time of physical separation. We have multiple class options, and you are always welcome to join us! Try one, try all!

CLASS OPTIONS

CONNECTIONS CLASS – This class for both men and women is led by Rev. Rick White, via Zoom, and uses the Connections curriculum from Smyth and Helwys. Each Sunday, fellowship time begins at 9:45 and Rick provides insights and an overview to the lesson at 9:55. Group discussion follows.

POLLYANNA CLASS – One of FBC's Ladies' classes, Pollyanna meets virtually each Sunday at 9:45 and is led by Carolyn McElroy. All women are welcome to participate in this class which uses Formations from Smyth and Helwys in addition to short curriculum studies.

KEYSTONE CLASS – One of FBC's men's classes, Keystone, meets virtually each Sunday at 9:45 and is led by Ralph Divine. All men are welcome to participate in this class which uses the Formations curriculum from Smyth and Helwys.

VIDEO SERIES CLASS – This class, for men and women, meets via Zoom each week at 9:45 to watch and discuss topics from various videos series. Dr. Keith Stillwell facilitates this class.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH – We also have curriculum for children and youth! Contact us so we can assist your family in all of your spiritual growth needs.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

Each option requires a Zoom invitation to participate in the class. The Video Series class has an additional option of joining a closed Facebook group. Whether you are ready to join or are just interested in more information about the class, please email Rev. Amanda Standiford, Associate Pastor of Children and Spiritual Formation, at astandiford@fbcfrankfort.church.
